A Message from Our Sponsor

What a feast of dance, drama and singing we've had this week with stunning Christmas performances from 2M, 2O, 1C, 1R, and RK. I thoroughly enjoyed each production and I know the very full and supportive audiences did too. Well done to all involved.

Mr Beale's Highlight of the Week

There have been so many fascinating Christmas themed activities going on around school this week that it's got me feeling very festive, I've seen Christmas sewing, other crafts, class and whole-school singing, card designs and some inspiring poetry. We've even had a group of playground poets writing poems to share in our final assembly next Friday. We ensure all activities are purposeful and move learning on and the children clearly enjoy the opportunities we offer them.

School Clubs

No school clubs next week. Our clubs will start again during the second week of the Spring term. I'll supply the usual list of available clubs in January (Windmill Club will continue all week).

Christmas Jumper Day

We have been awash with Christmas jumpers today. It's been lovely to see. Thanks to everyone who got involved.

Christmas Raffle

Tickets can still be ordered and paid for on ParentPay or via the school office. The raffle now includes 18 hampers and all the prizes mentioned mentioned in previous weeks. We'll complete the draw on Tuesday December 17.

Enormous thanks to the Tawd Vale Lions who donated a wide range of items to our raffle.

Class of the Week- This Week it's Class RK

Mrs Knowles says... It's been a joyful week in RK! The little ones have been buzzing with excitement as the elves have been busy moving about the classroom, bringing cheer and wonder to everyone. The children have been learning the art of wrapping presents, crafting delightful Christmas cards, and creating a special decoration for their tree. Their creative spirits truly shone! During their performance of the Christmas Nativity titled "Whoops-A-Daisy Angel," the children dazzled the audience with their fantastic singing, dancing, and acting skills. Everyone was amazed by their talent and enthusiasm! Mrs. Knowles is bursting with pride over their accomplishments. Keep up the great work, RK! Merry Christmas!
